

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

30th May, 2010

First Reading

Prov. 8:22-31

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

Wisdom was born before the earth was made.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

Ps. 8

Response: O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what are we that you should keep us in mind,
men and women that you care for us?

R.

Yet you have made us little less than gods;
and crowned us with glory and honour,
gave us power over the works of your hand,
put all things under our feet.

R.

All of them, sheep and cattle,
Yes, even the savage beasts,
birds of the air, and fish
that make their way through the waters.

R.

Second Reading

Rom. 5:1-5

A reading from the Letter to the Romans

To God through Christ in the love which is poured out through the Spirit.

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Jn. 16:12-15

✠ A reading from the holy gospel according to John

R. Glory to you Lord Christ.

Whatever the Father has is mine. The Spirit will receive what I give and tell you about it.

Jesus said to his disciples: "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

For the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you Lord Christ.
